"(b) 'Unit of Government' means the State of Texas, or any of its agencies and departments, any county, city, town, or village, or other political subdivision that employs one or more officers.

"Sec. 2. (a) Each unit of government, with respect to its own officers, is authorized to provide legal services and representation for any such officer, without cost to the officer, in any lawsuit for damages arising out of a tort claim that the officer was acting, at the time the damages were sustained, in the discharge of his official duties.

"(b) After service of citation upon the officer in such lawsuit, such officer shall notify promptly the head of his department, if such officer is not the head of the law enforcement department of the unit of government by whom he is employed. The head of department shall promptly notify the legal counsel of his unit of government (Attorney General, county attorney, criminal district attorney, or counsel for other political subdivision), and, if the defendant officer is employed by a political subdivision, he shall also notify promptly the mayor or city manager, county judge, or other presiding officer of the political subdivision by whom he is employed.

"(e) If the unit of government refuses to provide counsel for its defendant officer, the unit of government shall timely notify in writing such officer of its refusal to provide counsel, such notice to be served personally on the officer, or by United States Registered Mail addressed to such officer at his last known residence address. Where the unit of government refuses to provide counsel in a lawsuit against its defendant officer based on a tort claim for damages, such officer may employ his own counsel, and if the Court finds in its final judgment that such officer was acting within the scope of his authority and while performing his official duties at the time of the occurrence of the tort upon which the claim for damages is based, the unit of government shall pay the reasonable attorney's fee for the counsel so engaged by such officer for his defense of the lawsuit.

"(f) No unit of government shall be liable for any judgment for money damages rendered against such officer, other than attorney's fee and costs as provided in this Act.

"Sec. 3. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."
